

MAJOR AND MINOR.

Franklin Cook, of Warsaw, Ills., presented a very good programme of musical exercises, at the Opera House there. Among the numbers were the "Sonata Pathétique," Beethoven, and Rondo Capriccioso, both of Kunkel's Royal Edition, and Poet and Peasant Duet, as arranged by Melnotte.

Frog Legs at Milford's Ladies' and Gents' Dining Parlors, 207 and 209 North Sixth.

We, in common with every man, woman and child in St. Louis, extend a hearty welcome to Mr. P. S. Gilmore and his peerless band, which will again charm us with its sweetest sounds.

J. A. Carson and pupil, Miss Mabel Johnson, assisted by Leon Haven, vocalist, gave a piano recital at the residence of Jasper Johnson, Greenfield, Ill., on the 23rd ult. The selections, which were mostly from Kunkel's Royal Edition, reflect high credit upon the performers.

The Knabe Piano Factory, at Baltimore, gave their employees and friends a grand picnic at the Scheutzen Park.

There were very nearly 20,000 people in attendance, and all had a very good time. The five hundred workmen in Knabe's piano factory and their friends were enjoying the fifty-seventh annual picnic. The visitors were all in their Sunday clothes, and had on their happiest look. Lots of children were there. Men stood at the entrance gate and distributed 2,000 packages of candy to the little ones. All sorts of games—tenpin rolling, shoot at the mark, wheels of fortune, &c., were going all the time. Itzel's Fifth Regiment Band played in the stand, and Winter's orchestra made music for the dancers in the large pavilion. At 3 P. M. a reception was given in the pavilion by all the committees.

Addresses were made by Mr. Ernest Knabe, Mayor Latrobe and Frederick Shierffer.

In the evening, the Baltimore Liederkrantz, Germania Männerchor, Harmonie, Arion, Frohsinn, East Baltimore's Liederkrantz, Locust Point, Canton and Orpheus Männerchor Societies and the Sängerbunde sang songs.

PERFECT MUSIC BOOKS

for CHOIRS, for CLASSES, for CONVENTIONS, are perhaps impossible—but DITSON & CO.'S matchless books are just on the line.

Emerson's Easy Anthems, (80 cts., $7.20 per dozen), are 49 in number—quite new—give about one for each Sunday in the year, and are full of grace and beauty.

Song Harmony, (60 cts., $6 per dozen) by L. O. Emerson, is a new and very "perfect" book for SINGING CLASSES, perhaps the best of a long series of books by the same author.

The Graded Singing School, (50 cts., $4.50 per dozen), by D. F. Hodges, is a sensible, practical method, by a very sensible, practical teacher and is fully furnished with good material for successful work.

Jehovah's Praise, ($1, or $9 per dozen) by L. O. Emerson, is a full size Church Music Book, with a large number of Anthems and Tunes for choirs, also Glees, Part-Songs, and a multitude of melodious exercises for classes.

Temple Chimes, (35 cts., $3.60 per dozen) by EVANGELIST LUTHER, just published, is a very superior collection of new Gospel Songs, of Hymns and Tunes.

Praise in Song, (40 cts., $4.20 per dozen) by L. O. and E. U. Emerson, is a new Sunday School and Praise book, full of uncommonly good music and hymns. A very "perfect" book for vestry singing.

The Leading Art Dealers of St. Louis.

The two great tenors who are most popular in Europe at present are Signor Tamagno and M. Jean de Reszke. De Reszke the tenor, is a veritable prince of art. He is picturesquely handsome, belongs to a noble Polish family, has a fortune and is the idol of Parisian femininity at present.

A Viennese singer of extraordinary beauty named Catherine Michollessan, recently committed suicide. She was barely twenty-three years old.

All pieces contained in any copy of the REVIEW can be had of Kunkel Bros., the publishers, or any first class music house in the country in regular sheet music form. Parties stating otherwise are falsifiers.

Mr. Samson Fox, one of the wealthiest manufacturers in England, has handed the Prince of Wales a cheque for £45,000 which will defray the whole cost of the new building of the Royal College of Music, for which the commissioners of the Exhibition of 1881 have granted a site in the vicinity of the Imperial Institute.

The Opéra and the Opéra Comique of Paris have been connected by telephone with the Exposition, and visitors are allowed to assist by ear at the performances in either theatre; the communication with the Opéra Comique is almost perfect, with the Opéra it is not as good, the sounds being somewhat muffled. The receivers are placed on the stage one on each side of the prompter's box; the soloists are heard more distinctly than the chorus; the orchestra being located behind the receivers, is less audible than the voices in front of them, though some of the wind instruments sound very clearly. As in the case of the phonograph, the mistakes and defects of the execution of vocalists and instrumentalists are rendered so evident, that they seem startlingly exaggerated. The public is greatly interested in these telephone sances and the instruments are constantly occupied.

"None Better"

THAN Ayer's Pills to cleanse the stomach and bowels, stimulate the appetite, and help the assimilative process to make good blood. In this way, they prove beneficial in rheumatism, neuralgia, and other disturbances of the nervous system.

"I have derived great relief from Ayer's Pills. Five years ago I was taken so ill with rheumatism that I was unable to do any work. I took three boxes of Ayer's Pills and was entirely cured. Since that time I am never without a box of these pills."—Peter Christensen, Sherwood, Wis.

"I have used Ayer's Pills for a number of years, and have never found anything equal to them for giving me an appetite and imparting energy and strength to the system. I always keep them in the house."—R. D. Jackson, Wilmington, Del.

"We have used Ayer's Pills many years, and think them a very excellent family aperient."—A. B. Foster, Children's Home, Westville, Conn.

"I was troubled with sick headache for ten years, but was finally cured by using Ayer's Pills."—P. J. Haag, Scott, Wisconsin.

"I was afflicted for years with rheumatism. The best of medical skill failed to give me relief. I finally began to take only one month, and was completely cured."—B. S. Osborn, South Norwalk, Conn.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

"Most Reliable"

Are Ayer's Pills for Gout, Sick Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Dizziness, Heartburn, Liver-Complaint, Jaundice, and various other diseases of the liver, stomach, and bowels.

Samuel C. Bruburn, Worthington, Mass., writes:

"For sick headache, caused by a disordered condition of the stomach, Ayer's Pills are the most reliable remedy. They were first recommended to me by my mother, thirty years ago, and are the mildest and best purgative in the world."

"I cannot find any remedy for constipation to take the place of Ayer's Pills, and should not consider my medicine chest complete without them."—Capt. J. H. Blake, Steamer Raphael, New York City.

"I am never without Ayer's Cathartic Pills in my house. There are none better for the relief and cure of stomach and liver disorders."—Philander W. Melick, Elizabeth City, N. C.

Roland L. Larkin, Harlem, N. Y., certifies: "For a long time I was a victim to indigestion, nausea, dizziness, and heartburn. I took Ayer's Ca-

SIXTH ANNUAL EXPOSITION.

The Sixth Annual Exposition of St. Louis, Mo., opens Wednesday, September 4th, and closes Saturday, October 19th, covering a period of forty days in all, exclusive of Sundays. This Exposition, which was first opened September, 1884, has a history that has no parallel among similar institutions in the country. Its uniform record of success, marked by annual progression in prosperity, has been simply phenomenal. Other Expositions have sprung into existence in various parts of the country; have seemed to be endowed with all the elements of success; in some instances have lost money the first year—enough to discourage their projectors from the first; in other cases, one, or perhaps, two, seasons of success have cheered them on, only lead the more certainly to disaster; in short, all of the attempted annual expositions, with the solitary exception of that at St. Louis, have proven more or less financial failures within a short period of their inauguration. Why should the Exposition of St. Louis be such a conspicuous exception to the fatal rule which has governed the career of others?

That this Exposition has been progressively successful from year to year, the following statement of annual receipts will show: In 1884 (first year), the total receipts were $92,231.35; in 1885, they had jumped up to $106,786.32; in 1886, this handsome figure was increased to the enormous sum of $124,344.85, and in 1887, the year of greatest prosperity, the receipts footed up $126,913.91. In 1888 there was a slight falling off from the high water mark of the previous year, but this was due entirely to the political excitement that always pervades the country in "Presidential years." The managers of the Exposition this year expect to surpass anything in their former experience, and, judging from the preparations made and the immense variety of attractions offered, there appears to be every reason that their expectations should be fulfilled.

But, why is the Exposition at St. Louis hitherto an exception to the otherwise universal rule? Why is it continuously successful while others fail? The answer is obvious, and consists of two main facts. First, the cheapness of admission, one quarter of a dollar admitting to all the attractions, including four concerts, which enables every one to enjoy and to thoroughly study in half a dozen or a dozen visits what, otherwise, and upon less liberal terms, he would only visit once. The wise rule, also, that permits no extra charge for fakirs' side shows, and rigidly excludes all cheap penny devices, tends to popularize the institution. Visitors go there and come away without that feeling of having been seduced into extravagance beyond their means or wishes, that too often follow visits to similar shows elsewhere.

The second, and not the least important of the principal reasons for the success alluded to, is the enterprise and liberality which the Directors show in getting the best and most instructive, as well as amusing, entertainment for their visitors. Let us take, for example, a partial look at the attractions for this year:

Take the music first. Everyone concedes that among the very best military bands in this country, if not in the world, is that of the 22d Regiment of New York, organized and conducted by the greatest military band leader of the age, Patrick Sarsfield Gilmore. This famous musical organization consists of sixty-five men, exclusive of the leader, and every one of these men is an artist whose rank in the world of music would entitle him to lead in any other band but Gilmore's. Of course, being the best, it is the highest-priced. Musicians of the standing of those who follow Col. Gilmore's baton, can and do command the highest salaries paid in the profession. But the managers of the St. Louis Exposition, being determined to give their patrons the best, pay Gilmore's prices rather than take second best, and then are liberal enough to throw four of these expensive grand concerts daily in among the other attractions, charging nothing extra and satisfied if their enterprise gives satisfaction. As is well known, Gilmore's band never can, owing to other contracts in New York, arrive in St. Louis in time for the opening of the Exposition. This year it will arrive several days earlier than usual, namely, in time to play on the evening of Wednesday, September 11th. This leaves one week to be disposed of in other ways, and the Exposition managers have filled this week wisely by contracting with the famous cornet player, Alexander Liberati, to bring his military band and four first-class vocalists, to fill in the vacant week. Liberati's band consists of forty-one pieces, and though only recently organized, has won a most enviable reputation, and, indeed, the little cornetist is well known to be so thoroughly master of his profession that nothing but what is first-class could be expected from any organization he should conduct.

The Art Galleries show another example of this kind of liberality. Many thousand dollars are spent annually in making collections of the best available works of art in the country. This year, at a cost of over $12,500, the famous collection of paintings, by Verestchagin, the world-renowned Russian painter, soldier and traveler, have been secured. These paintings, many of which are of enormous size—one being 27 feet long by 22 feet high—are of the greatest beauty, artistically speaking, while the scenes they depict render them most intensely interesting. Verestchagin was a Russian soldier on the staff of General Skobeloff, throughout the last Russo-Turkish war. He served in passes at Shipka and through all the horrors of the Plevna campaign. At least twenty of his great canvases are devoted to the portrayal of the awful scenes of carnage which he witnessed during this bloody war. Other paintings, by the hundred, are devoted to scenes illustrative of bible history, among them the famous "Holy Family," whose realism and fidelity to detail caused so much ferment and agitation among the superstitiously inclined in Vienna. This excitement grew so intense at one time that vitriol-throwers attempted to destroy the paintings, and even the artist's life was threatened. Others of his paintings, again, show scenes in India—one where the British troops are about to blow some rebel natives from the mouths of big guns; scenes in Persia and Turkey; scenes in Russia and Constantinople, and, in a word, scenes that must interest everybody who has the slightest desire to understand the beauties and peculiarities of Russian and Oriental life. As with the music, this magnificent collection is also included in the universally potent quarter admission fee at the door. At Philadelphia and New York the public were charged half a dollar to see these paintings alone.

Another great attraction, and perhaps the most interesting, as well as most useful to the world, this year, will be the array of electrical displays. Electricians of eminence have been engaged, and at work for months past, in procuring and arranging these various exhibits, and all who are familiar with the subject declare that this will be the greatest, the most comprehensive and most varied exhibition of electrical inventions and appliances ever seen in America. It would be impossible, in the course of a brief article, to enumerate all the wonders that will be shown. Reference to only a few must suffice: Electrical cooking; think of it, ye housewives! An oven that will bake bread, roast meat or cook coffee, with no visible fire; no dust; no smoke. That can be made ready for use by simply pressing a push-button, and put out of service as easily. This will be shown at the Exposition, and bread baked in the oven given away to the hungry multitudes.

Electrical music; pianos and organs and one drum corps will be played by electricity; the keys and drum sticks moving as if with spirit hands.

Edison's phonograph; this modern wonder will be shown in various parts of the Exposition building, and Gilmore's music, after being played on the stage by his band, will be repeated to new audiences in other places by this magical instrument.

Electrical locomotion; various motors for railroad and street cars will be exhibited in operation, and a woman's invention, by the way—an electrical road carriage, which will render us all independent of the use of horses on our country journeys. This ingenious machine not only runs smoothly along the highway, but is constructed so that rivers can be crossed without inconvenience, and with but a minutes delay in adjusting the gearing.

And so pages might be filled with a list of these wonders; welding metals by electricity, sending autographic messages by telegraph, warming street cars or rooms by electricity, filling teeth and probing wounds by the same subtle aid, in short doing all and almost everything that can be done by hand or steam power, and much more economically and cleanly. All these wonders will be shown, in addition to a great collection of machines, farm and shop, mercantile and other brilliant exhibits, at the St. Louis Exposition of 1889.

CITY NOTES.

Wayman McCreery paid a visit to Chicago.

Geo. Jarvis is working on a new comic opera.

Geo. Heerich will soon be home from Europe.

Alfred G. Robyn is spending the summer East.

Mrs. H. H. Highleyman visited Manitou Springs, Col., and found the climate delightful.

Geo. Vleh, Jr., was a pupil of Victor Ehling, and upon his advice will continue his studies in Europe.

Henry Allman, the well-known vocal teacher, has returned from his vacation—having rusticated in Wisconsin.

L. Retter is the happy possessor of a magnificent Kroeger & Son's Parlor Grand Pianos, which he bought lately.

Max Ballman has scarcely time to breathe, and can not dream of a vacation. He is one of the busiest men in town.

E. R. Kroeger's Piano Quartette, played at the Composers' Concert of the M. T. N. A., aroused the greatest enthusiasm.

Fred. Specht, the silver-voiced tenor, called upon us, a fortnight ago, looking none the worse from his extensive travels.

Mrs. R. E. Allen, of Litchfield, Ills., has used almost a hundred copies of the popular "Alpine Storm," by Charles Kunkel, in her classes.

Miss Maggie Hennagan has returned from her vacation and resumed classes: she is at present in charge of the organ at the Redemptorist Church.

F. Victor Hoffman, the violinist, at present teaching at the Beethoven Conservatory, goes to Scranton in September to teach in Carl Schimpf's Conservatory.

Dominic Cavallo, pupil of L. Brun played Grand Concerto for clarinet by Frank Stington. Mr. Cavallo is coming to the front and gives promise of good artistic ability.

Mr. Jenkins has resumed the organ of the Holy Communion Church, having recovered from a short sickness. The morning and evening services will be continued.

Mr. Charles Kunkel and wife, accompanied by Mrs. Jacob Kunkel, sand-bars notwithstanding, took a sail up the Mississippi and enjoyed the breezes of Illinois and Iowa.

At the reception tendered Mrs. H. S. Praetorius, by the Arion Society of New York, the president said that in the 16 years of his presidency he never saw any one receive such an ovation.

As may be seen from the contents for next month, the October REVIEW will contain "Adele Waltz," by J. A. Kieselhorst, the talented author of "Anna, to Thee," etc., etc. The waltz is very charming and poetic, and is bound to be popular.

C. I. Wynne, the popular Olive Street music dealer, with wife and baby boy, took a sail down the river to Paducah. Mr. Wynne does a very handsome business at his stand, 916 Olive Street, and has the latest of everything in his line.

T. Bahnsen, manufacturer of the fine Bahnsen pianos, recently shipped one of his most elegant uprights to Alabama. The Bahnsen pianos are fast gaining recognition as leading instruments, due to the careful and first-class work of the maker.

The Third Congregational Church, M. A. Rosen, organist, has turned its tenor, C. J. Collins, into the bands of matrimony. He will still sing. Miss Mamie Olmstead will be alto. Mrs. Hattie Webb Kammerer, soprano, and Mr. Robert Miller, basso.

A Grand Wagner Concert will be given in the early part of December, at the Grand Opera House, by the united societies of the Orpheus Saengerbund, St. Louis Damen Chor, St. Louis Musik Verein, and others, under the direction of Fred. W. Norsch. A large chorus and orchestra will assist, with first class soloists. Lohengrin will be the opera drawn upon.

August F Reipschlaeger, a talented young man who has studied here with L. Meyer, E. R. Kroeger, and Charles Kunkel, leaves on the 2nd inst. for Europe, where he will spend about three years in furthering his studies in cello, piano and conducting.

Geo. H. Wiseman, the baritone, is a lucky man, and if he could handle futures on land as well as he does on water, he would bid fair to be a nabob. We saw him scoop in cash at the rate of a dollar a minute in a certain scheme. He lost occasionally, but George knows when he is on the wrong side of the fence.

Miss Lottie Gerak, daughter of Philip Gerak, of 3031 S. Seventh St., has returned home after an absence of four years spent at the Vienna Conservatory of Music. Miss Gerak comes with high honors, having won several prizes during her course of study.

The Epstein Brothers have arrived home, hale and hearty, and are profuse in their praise of the fraternal relations that existed between the members of the M.T.N.A. The Brothers were received with marks of the highest esteem and with many a good old hand-shake by some of their brother artists who had continually heard of them, but had had no opportunity of a personal chat. Their playing was a revelation to all.

Mr. A. W. Hoffman, of the Beethoven Conservatory, was a guest of Karl Schimpff, of Scranton, Pa., during his recent stay there, and gave a very fine concert before leaving. As Mr. Schimpff has one of the largest Conservatories of Music in the country, Mr. Hoffman had a large and enthusiastic audience. His "Pearl Gavotte," as played by Gilmore's Band, "Alone" improvisation, "Witches' Story" and "Danse Rustique" were received with the greatest appreciation.

A BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION FREE.

A prominent society lady, now at the seashore, writes:
"The box of Mexican Rose Cream, for myself and friends, was duly received yesterday, and I must say that its reputation has spread like wildfire. Nearly all the ladies at our hotel are wild about it. It is an excellent cure for sun-burn, and the greatest beautifier I have ever used, and being free from all poisons we do not hesitate to use it on our children.
Nearly all the ladies here have taken your address, so that you may look for lots of orders from here."

Ladies who desire to give it a trial will receive sample free

GAVOTTE.

Molto moderato. ♩—100.

G. Sgambati. Op. 14.

This page of musical notation is for a piano piece, likely a study or a short composition. It consists of five systems of staves, each with a grand staff (treble and bass clef). The music is written in a key with two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a common time signature (C). The notation is highly detailed, featuring numerous triplets, sixteenth notes, and complex rhythmic patterns. Dynamic markings include p (piano), ff (fortissimo), mf (mezzo-forte), f (forte), and p (piano). Performance instructions such as Ped. (pedal) and sotto voce (softly) are present. The piece concludes with a bis. (bis) marking and a final sotto voce section. The notation is clear and professional, typical of a published musical score.

First system of the musical score. It consists of two staves. The left staff is in bass clef and the right staff is in treble clef. The key signature has two flats. The music features a variety of note values, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. Dynamics include pp (pianissimo) and f (forte). Pedal markings (Ped.) are present with asterisks indicating specific pedal points. Fingering numbers (1-5) are written above the notes.

Second system of the musical score, labeled Musette. It consists of two staves. The left staff is in bass clef and the right staff is in treble clef. The key signature has two flats. The music features a variety of note values, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. Dynamics include pp dolce (pianissimo dolce). Pedal markings (Ped.) are present with asterisks indicating specific pedal points. Fingering numbers (1-5) are written above the notes. The instruction una corda is written below the left staff.

Third system of the musical score. It consists of two staves. The left staff is in bass clef and the right staff is in treble clef. The key signature has two flats. The music features a variety of note values, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. Dynamics include rit. un poco. (ritardando un poco). Pedal markings (Ped.) are present with asterisks indicating specific pedal points. Fingering numbers (1-5) are written above the notes. The instruction piu dim. (piu diminuendo) is written below the right staff.

Fourth system of the musical score. It consists of two staves. The left staff is in bass clef and the right staff is in treble clef. The key signature has two flats. The music features a variety of note values, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. Dynamics include crescendo. Pedal markings (Ped.) are present with asterisks indicating specific pedal points. Fingering numbers (1-5) are written above the notes. The instruction FINALE. is written below the left staff.

Fifth system of the musical score. It consists of two staves. The left staff is in bass clef and the right staff is in treble clef. The key signature has two flats. The music features a variety of note values, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. Dynamics include crescendo, sf (sforzando), and dimin. (diminuendo). Pedal markings (Ped.) are present with asterisks indicating specific pedal points. Fingering numbers (1-5) are written above the notes. The instruction FINALE. is written below the left staff.

This page of a musical score is written for a piano and features a complex, polyphonic texture. The notation is spread across ten staves, with the right hand (r.h.) and left hand (l.h.) parts often overlapping. The key signature is D major (two sharps). The score includes numerous performance markings and technical instructions:

- Dynamic markings: f (forte), sf (sforzando), ff (fortissimo), cres. (crescendo), rit. (ritardando), and grandioso.
- Pedal markings: "Ped." is written frequently throughout the score, often with asterisks (*) indicating specific pedal points or changes.
- Hand indications: "r.h." (right hand) and "l.h." (left hand) are used to specify which hand plays a particular part.
- Technical markings: Fingerings (e.g., 1, 2, 3, 4, 5) and articulation marks (e.g., accents, slurs) are present throughout the score.
- Rehearsal marks: Asterisks (*) are used as rehearsal or section markers.

The music is characterized by dense chordal textures and rapid passages, particularly in the right hand, which often plays sixteenth-note figures. The left hand provides a steady, rhythmic foundation with sustained chords and moving lines. The overall style is highly technical and expressive, typical of late 19th or early 20th-century piano repertoire.

This musical score is for the piano accompaniment of 'The Swan' by Camille Saint-Saëns. It is written for a grand piano, with a treble clef and a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). The tempo is marked 'Andante' and the time signature is 3/4. The score includes various performance markings such as 'Ped.' (pedal), 'sf' (sforzando), 'cres.' (crescendo), and 'r.h.' (right hand). The right hand part features a melodic line with many slurs and fingerings, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. The score is divided into measures by bar lines, and the overall structure is a single continuous piece.

This musical score is for the song "The Rose Tree" and is written for a piano. It consists of two systems of music. The first system begins with a treble clef and a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#). The melody is written in the treble staff, starting with a forte (f) dynamic and a half note G#4. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment, featuring a crescendo (cres.) marking and a final measure with a fermata. Pedal points (Ped.) are indicated at the beginning and end of the piece, as well as under the first system. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings.

A musical score for the song "The Rose Tree". The score is written for a piano and voice. The piano part is in the lower register, featuring a bass clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The voice part is in the upper register, featuring a treble clef and the same key signature. The tempo is marked "Allegretto". The score is divided into four measures. The first measure is marked "ff" (fortissimo). The second measure is marked "Ped." (pedal). The third measure is marked "Ped." (pedal). The fourth measure is marked "Ped." (pedal). The score includes various musical notations, including notes, rests, and dynamic markings.

The musical score is for a piano introduction and a waltz in 3/4 time. It features a treble and bass staff. The introduction consists of two measures, each with a triplet of eighth notes in the treble and a single eighth note in the bass. The waltz begins with a treble staff containing a triplet of eighth notes, followed by a series of eighth and sixteenth notes. The bass staff contains a single eighth note, followed by a series of eighth and sixteenth notes. The score includes various musical notations, including triplets, fingerings, and a key signature of one flat.

First system of musical notation, measures 1-4. The treble staff contains a melodic line with eighth-note patterns and fingerings (1 2 4, 3, 4, 3, 2). The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with eighth-note patterns and fingerings (5, 1, 3, 5, 4, 4, 4, 3, 1, 2, 2).

Second system of musical notation, measures 5-8. Measure 5 is marked calando. and measure 6 is marked a tempo. Measure 7 is marked p e dolce. The treble staff continues the melodic line with various fingerings. The bass staff features a steady eighth-note accompaniment with fingerings (5, 2, 2, 4, 2, 8, 5, 3, 5, 4, 2, 1, 5, 3, 2, 3, 2).

Third system of musical notation, measures 9-12. The treble staff shows a descending melodic line with fingerings (5, 4, 3, 2, 1, 3, 2, 1, 3, 2, 1, 2, 3). The bass staff continues the eighth-note accompaniment with fingerings (2, 3, 2, 4, 2, 5, 1, 4, 5, 5, 4, 5, 4, 5, 4, 5, 3).

Fourth system of musical notation, measures 13-16. The treble staff features a melodic line with fingerings (5, 4, 1, 2, 1, 4, 3, 2, 1, 2, 1, 5, 4, 1, 2, 1, 5, 4, 1, 1, 4). The bass staff continues the eighth-note accompaniment with fingerings (5, 3, 3, 4, 3, 2, 1, 5, 4, 5, 4, 3, 5, 4, 4, 5, 4).

Fifth system of musical notation, measures 17-20. The treble staff includes a key signature change to one flat (B-flat) in measure 18, indicated by a 'B' with a flat. It contains complex melodic patterns with fingerings (3, 1, 3, 5, 4, 2, 1, 2, 4, 1, 2, 4, 5, 1, 2, 4). The bass staff continues the eighth-note accompaniment with fingerings (3, 2, 3, 1, 3, 1, 5, 3, 1, 5, 2, 1, 3, 2).

Sixth system of musical notation, measures 21-24. The treble staff continues the melodic line with fingerings (1, 2, 4, 1, 2, 4, 5, 4, 1, 2, 4, 5). The bass staff continues the eighth-note accompaniment with fingerings (1, 4, 1, 3, 1, 3, 1, 3, 1, 3, 1, 3, 1, 3, 1, 3, 1, 3).

Seventh system of musical notation, measures 25-28. The treble staff features a melodic line with fingerings (4, 3, 1, 3, 1, 3, 1, 3, 1, 3, 1, 3, 1, 3, 1, 3, 1, 3). The bass staff continues the eighth-note accompaniment with fingerings (4, 3, 1, 3, 1, 3, 1, 3, 1, 3, 1, 3, 1, 3, 1, 3, 1, 3). The system concludes with a pp (pianissimo) dynamic marking.

John A. Mahler has just completed his new and elegant Dancing Hall, at 3204 Lucas Ave. In addition to the Ball Room, there are two large Dressing Rooms for pupils, elegantly fitted up; there is also a Banquet Hall, which will also be known as the Gymnasium for Ladies, Misses and Masters only, and for those desiring to form private parties for its use. The Gymnasium will be open every morning for ladies, and afternoon for children. The Vandeventer Hall dancing classes will be continued as usual, except on Saturday morning, class at 10 o'clock instead of the afternoon class, also on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock as usual.

Mr. Mahler is the only St. Louis member of the National Association of Teachers of Dancing of the United States and Canada. His classes open after Sept. 1st.

Please remember that you get twelve complete numbers of the REVIEW, one year's subscription for only $3.00.

A compliment to a St. Louis artist.—From the eminent flutist and teacher, H. Clay Wysham, San Francisco, Cal.:

"DEAR MR. KIESELHORST—I should, ere this, have thanked you for your very artistic and graceful caprice, 'Anna, to Thee.' I played it last night, at a private musicale, and it was applauded to the echo. It bids fair to become a favorite, and it shall be remembered among my concert pieces the coming season. * * *

The above has reference to Mr. J. A. Kieselhorst's Caprice de Concert, 'Anna, to Thee.' Flute solo, with accompaniment for piano-forte. Published by Kunkel Bros., 612 Olive St.

Epstein.—It is with pleasure that we announce the return of Mr. Herman Epstein from his studies abroad. When Mr. Epstein left us, some three years ago, a youth of 18 years, he was even then a pianist of considerable merit, and during the few times he appeared in public showed himself fully worthy to be a brother to his teachers, the well-known renowned Epstein Brothers. Since then he has been studying in Berlin, with the best masters of Europe, and by his diligence and talents has acquired the highest laudation. Mr. E. is of a classical turn of mind, though not unmixed with the romantic. He is especially fond of the good old masters, and plays them with the closest precision and exactness, yet without does not neglect to give great attention to warmth of tone and grace of sentiment and expression. His playing and compositions are both characterized by a lack of clap-trap and tricks, and by an earnest desire to express the beautiful and to advance the cause of fineness and purity in music, both showing that he courts popular success only if it can be gained by honesty and devotion to true art, not deigning, however, to sacrifice his ideal in order to gratify his vanity or to obtain applause. We are pleased to have such an earnest, upright, honest musician among us, and hope that his labors will be appreciated. He will appear in concert here during the winter, and we will then be able to note his success.

Wayman C. McCreery gave a "Stag Party Musicales" to his friends on the evening of the 8th inst., that has been the talk of the "town" since and won the honor of "King of Musicales." About seventy persons were present, including almost all the musical talent around, and many of the University Club. Charles Kunkel, Fred Specht of New York, McWade of the Cave. Greensfelder, Herbert the Comedian, Porteous, Wiseman, Crawford, in a word all the known musical cranks. The greatest feature of the party was the tenor solo "Love's Sorrow" by Fred Specht which stirred every man to the highest pitch of enthusiasm. Mr. McWade sang his favorite song "The Broken Ring" amid great applause. Mes-rs. Hoff and Specht sang a duet from Trovatore. The Hatton Quartette charmed all with its refined selections. Mr. Yost sang Robyn's "Answer" and Mr. Hoff "Then You'll Remember Me."

Messrs. Tuthill and Herbert gave several splendid recitations. The "Soldier's Farewell" was taken up by all at the close, and sent skyward with tremendous effect. No echoes slept there—depend upon it. If ever the inner man was fortified it was at this "Stag Party Musicales," and when the bracing air of next A. M., sprung up it found a jolly crowd wending homeward from that "King of Musicales."

The Musicians' Aschenbroedel Club gave an excursion on the steamer Grand Republic, Monday, August 12th. This was one of the most enjoyable events of the season; the only losers were those that failed to attend. One of the most pleasing incidents of this affair was the presence of the Arsenal Band. They were invited, and gracefully accepted, and did much to make the affair pleasant with their splendid performance. The ill feeling that has been engendered on account of government competition was entirely obliterated, and these men now fully understand that it was not the men that were opposed, but the unjust principle of government competition. A bill will be introduced in the next Congress to raise the rank and pay of musicians in the army, and will no doubt pass, as the National League of Musicians is going to exert itself to the utmost to convince Congress of the necessity for so just a measure. Musicians in the army are treated with no more consideration than the ordinary private soldier, and the recent exposures made by the daily press shows that to be sad enough.

MAJOR AND MINOR.

Heir Edward Strauss, the Vienna composer and conductor of dance music, has been engaged to play at Manhattan Beach next summer.

All pieces contained in any copy of the REVIEW can be had of Kunkel Bros., the publishers, or any first class music house in the country in regular sheet music form. Parties stating otherwise are falsifiers.

Saint-Saens was so ill that his physicians advised him to go to the south of France for a short time.

Otto Hegner is to appear in America between November next and May, 1890; he is engaged for fifty concerts, at $500 each.

Hulbert Bros., of 923 Olive St., are saving their cash customers a great deal of money on pianos by giving them regular wholesale prices. New uprights range from $150.00 to $300.00 according to grade.

Rive-King—Mme. Rive-King has been engaged as the soloist for the first Cincinnati Symphony Concert, next season. Mme. King did not travel last season, but remained at home, in New York, playing in many important concerts and piano musicals, always with the most pronounced success.

Soft Shell Crabs and Lobsters served at Milford's Ladies' and Gents' Dining Parlors, 207 and 209 North Sixth.

Carl Rosa, left a larger fortune than he has been credited with earning; £78,000 is the figure now fixed. Mme. Parepa Rosa's fortune, which Carl Rosa inherited, amounted to about one-third of that sum. The rest was resultant from the production of English opera in an artistic manner.

Did you ever see 12 numbers of the REVIEW bound? They make a magnificent present.

Our European exchanges give details of the initial performance of the Bayreuth Wagner Festival of 1889, which took place on the 21st ult., with "Parsifal," under Herr Levi's direction. The cast comprised Materna (Kundry), Reichmann (Amfortas), Siehr (Gurnemans), Fuchs (Klingsor), and Van Dyk (Parsifal). The orchestra numbers 120, the band on the stage thirty, and the chorus ninety-seven—fifty-two males and forty-five females. The auditorium was filled. Among the audience were to be seen the King of Saxony, several foreign princes, and the usual contingent of German kings and grand dukes. The sale of tickets has been unusually successful; in fact all of the tickets for the entire series have been disposed of. The net profits are expected to reach the sum of $50,000.

which will be funded until 1892, when it will be used for the contemplated revival of the Paris version of "Tannhauser," which will be given alternately with "Parsifal."

Snipe on Toast, Milford's Ladies' and Gents' Dining Parlors, 207 and 209 North Sixth.

Louis Meyer, the well known composer, died at his home in West Philadelphia on Saturday, July 13th, after a long and painful illness. Mr. Meyer was born at Eisenberg, Germany, July 16 1840, and came to America when about six years of age.
